Claims Handling Process

Conditions that apply to the Policy and in the event of a claim are set out in this policy wording. It is important that you comply with all policy conditions and you should familiarise yourself with any requirements

Directions for claim notification are included under General Claims Settlement Conditions and Claims Settlement Conditions applying to each Section.

Please be aware that events that may give rise to a claim under the insurance must be notified to us as soon as reasonably possible and in any event no later than 30 days although there are some situations where immediate notice is required. Further guidance is contained in this policy wording.

Claims Conditions require you to provide us with any reasonable assistance and evidence that we require concerning the cause and value of any claim. Ideally, as part of the initial notification, you will provide:

- Your name, address and your home and mobile telephone numbers
- Personal details necessary to confirm your identity
- Policy number
- The date of the incident
- The cause of the loss damage or injury
- Details of the loss damage or injury together with the claim value, if known
- Names and addresses of any other parties involved or responsible for the incident

This information will enable us to make an initial evaluation on policy liability and claim value. We may, however, request additional information depending upon circumstances and value which may include the following:

- Original purchase receipts invoices instruction booklets or photographs
- Purchase dates and location of lost or damage property
- For damaged property confirmation from a suitable expert that the item you are claiming for is beyond repair

Sometimes we, or someone acting on our behalf, may wish to meet with you to discuss the circumstances of the claim, or to undertake further investigations

Initially a notification of any claim should be sent to:

Arch Insurance UK Personal Accident & Travel Claims
3 Hardman Square
Spinningfields
Manchester

Telephone No: 0344 892 1787

Complaints Procedures

Our objective is to provide a high standard of service at all times. However, we recognise that things can sometimes go wrong. When this occurs, we are committed to resolving matters promptly.

What happens if you complain

If we are unable to deal with your complaint immediately, we will write to you within 5 working days of receipt and inform you who is dealing with the complaint and when you can next expect a response.

We aim to conclude our investigations promptly. However, in some circumstances, our investigations may take some time, and we will keep you fully informed. This means that we will write to you as soon as we have concluded our investigation or, if we have not been able to inform you of our decision within 4 weeks of receipt, we will write to you to let you know. If we are not able to reach a decision within 8 weeks, we will write to you again, either; concluding our investigation, or; advising you of when we expect to be able to conclude our investigation, or; advising you of your right to take your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman.

When we conclude your complaint we will write to you, giving you our "Final Response". This will tell you if we have upheld or rejected your complaint (in whole or in part), and if appropriate we will make an offer of redress.

What you should do if you would like to complain

If you are disappointed with any aspect of the handling of your insurance, please contact the Complaints Manager at: Arch Insurance (UK) Limited 5th Floor, Plantation Place South, 60 Great Tower Street, London EC3R 5AZ complaints@archinsurance.co.uk. If your complaint requires investigation by another party, we will pass details onto them to deal with in accordance with their complaints procedure. In this event, we will provide you with details of who we have passed your complaint to.

Refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service

If, after making a complaint to Arch Insurance (UK) Limited, you feel that the matter has not been resolved to your satisfaction (or if your complaint remains unresolved after 8 weeks of initially telling us) you may be able to refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman at:

Fair Presentation of the Risk

We are keen to work in partnership with the You and avoid any misunderstandings.

1. You must make a fair presentation of the risk to Us at inception, renewal and variation of the policy.
Should You be in any doubt as to whether information should be presented to Us, You must
 - discuss it with Your insurance broker or adviser, or
 - disclose it to Us.
2. We may, at Our absolute discretion, void the policy and refuse to pay any claims where any failure to make a fair presentation is:
 - (a) deliberate or reckless; or
 - (b) of such other nature that, if You had made a fair presentation, We would not have issued the policy.
We will return the premium paid by You unless the failure to make a fair presentation is deliberate or reckless.
3. If We would have issued the policy on different terms had You made a fair presentation, We will void the policy (except where the failure is deliberate or reckless) but We may instead, at Our absolute discretion;
 - (a) reduce proportionately the amount paid or payable on any claim, the proportion for which We are liable being calculated by comparing the premium actually charged as a percentage of the premium which We would have charged had You made a fair presentation; and/or
 - (b) treat the policy as if it had included such additional terms (other than those requiring payment of premium) as We would have imposed had You made a fair presentation.

For the purposes of this condition references to:

- i. voiding a policy means treating the policy as if it had not existed from the inception date (where the failure to make a fair presentation of the risk occurs before or at the inception of the policy), the renewal date (where the failure occurs at renewal of the policy), or the variation date (where the failure occurs when the policy is varied),
- ii. refunds of premium should be treated as refunds of premium back to the inception date, renewal date or variation date as the context requires,
- iii. issuing a policy should be treated as the references to issuing the policy at inception, renewal or alteration of the policy as the context requires,
- iv. premium should be treated as the premium payable for the particular contract of insurance which is subject to this condition (where there is more than one contract of insurance).

Fair Processing Notice

The privacy and security of your information is important to us. This notice explains who we are, the types of information we hold, how we use it, who we share it with and how long we keep it. It also informs you of certain rights you have regarding your personal information under current data protection law. The terms used in this Fair Processing Notice relate to the Information Commissioner's Office guidance.

Who are we?

Arch Insurance (UK) Limited which is part of the Arch Insurance group ("Arch"). Arch is the Data Controller of the information you provide us and is registered with the Information Commissioner's Office for the products and services we provide to you.

You can contact us for general data protection queries by email to DPO@archinsurance.co.uk or in writing to Compliance Team, 5th Floor Plantation Place South, 60 Great Tower Street, London EC3R 5AZ. Please advise us of as much detail as possible to comply with your request.

What information do we collect?

We will collect personal information which may include your name, telephone number, email address, postal address, occupation, date of birth, additional details of risks related to your enquiry or product and payment details (including bank account number and sort code) which we need to offer and provide the service or product or deal with a claim.

We may need to request and collect sensitive personal information such as details of convictions or medical history that are necessary for providing you with the product, service or for processing a claim.

We only collect and process sensitive personal data where it is critical for the delivery of a product or service and without which the product or service cannot be provided. We will therefore not seek explicit consent to process this information as the processing is legitimised by its criticality to the service provision. If you object to use of this information then we will be unable to offer you the product or service requested.

How do we use your personal information?

We will use your personal information to

- Assess and provide the products or services that you have requested
- Communicate with you
- Develop new products and services
- Undertake statistical analysis

We may also take the opportunity to

- Contact you about products that are closely related to those you already hold with us
- Provide additional assistance or tips about these products or services
- Notify you of important functionality changes to our websites

We make outbound phone calls for a variety of reasons relating to many of our products or services (for example, to update you on the progress of a claim or to discuss renewal of your insurance contract). We are fully committed to the regulations set out by Ofcom and follow strict processes to ensure we comply with them.

To ensure confidentiality and security of the information we hold, we may need to request personal information and ask security questions to satisfy ourselves that you are who you say you are.

We may aggregate information and statistics on website usage or for developing new and existing products and services, and we may also provide this information to third parties. These statistics will not include information that can be used to identify any individual.

Securing your personal information

We follow strict security procedures in the storage and disclosure of your personal information in line with industry practices, including storage in electronic and paper formats.

We store all information you provide to us, including information provided via forms you may complete on our website, and information which we may collect from your browsing (such as clicks and page views on our websites).

Any new information you provide us may be used to update an existing record we hold for you.

When do we share your information?

To help us prevent financial crime, your details may be submitted to fraud prevention agencies and other organisations where your records may be searched, including the Claims and Underwriting Exchange (CUE) and the Motor Insurers Anti-Fraud and Theft Register (MIAFTR).

In addition to companies within Arch Insurance Group, third parties (for example insurers or loss adjustors) deliver some of our products or provide all or part of the service requested by you. In these instances, while the information you provide will be disclosed to these companies, it will only be used for the provision and administration of the service provided (for example verification of any quote given to you or claims processing, underwriting and pricing purposes or to maintain management information for analysis).

This may also include conducting a search with a credit reference bureau or contacting other firms involved in financial management regarding payment.

The data we collect about you may be transferred to, and stored at, a destination outside of the European Economic Area ("EEA"). It may also be processed by staff operating outside of the EEA who work for us or for one of our suppliers. Such staff may be engaged in, amongst other things, the provision of information you have requested.

If we provide information to a third party we will require it and any of its agents and/or suppliers to take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that your data is treated securely and in accordance with this Fair Processing Notice.

We may of course be obliged by law to pass on your information to the police or other law enforcement body, statutory or regulatory authority including but not limited to the Employer's Liability Tracing Office (ELTO) and the Motor Insurance Bureau (MIB).

We may also share your information with anyone you have authorised to deal with us on your behalf.

How long do we keep your information for?

We will not keep your personal information longer than is necessary for the purpose for which it was provided unless we are required to do so by law or other legitimate reasons to keep it for longer (for example if necessary for any legal proceedings).

We will normally keep information for no more than 6 years after termination or cancellation of a product, contract or service we provide. In certain cases, we will keep your information for longer, particularly where a product includes liability insurances or types of insurance for which a claim could potentially be made by you or a third party at a future date, even after your contract with us has ended.

Your rights

Under data protection law you have the right to change or withdraw your consent and to request details of any personal data that we hold about you.

Where we have no legitimate reason to continue to hold your information, you have the right to be forgotten.

We may use automated decision making in processing your personal information for some products and services. You can request a manual review of the accuracy of an automated decision that you are unhappy with.

Further details of your rights can be obtained by visiting the Information Commissioner's Office website at <https://ico.org.uk/>.
